Analyse the impact of a writer's methods: WHAT? HOW? WHY?

I- MY MODEL: Where is the WHAT? HOW? WHY?

Up to here is just comment or statement

Here, it starts to ANALYSE and pick apart word choice and impact

Here we are moving into inference as well with the blue font.

Ends with more analysis on the connotations of an alternative on an oyster's qualities

The simile, 'as solitary as an oyster' suggests Scrooge is single and alone.

The adjective 'solitary' implies he is introverted and unsociable. Which, if readers hadn't been shown how mean he was, might feel sorry for him.

Furthermore, it evokes the sense he is quite closed as a person since oysters are tough to crack. However, Dickens hints at a positive hidden depth to Scrooge as readers may connote that an 'oyster' often contains a valuable pearl, symbolising Scrooge has a hidden worth we are yet to experience, which is a more balanced view of him.

HOW? Simile-method
WHAT?
Scrooge as single and alone

HOW? Adjective+ quotation = 'solitary' and analysis /impact on reader

HOW? WHAT? and WHY? Analysing connotations of oyster from a different angle.

How to use this booklet

Remember, if you want to improve you need to do something different , extra than before, otherwise you continue to do the same thing.

This booklet has been designed to give you extra practise for the Lit texts. Doing these will help make you better at answering the Qs and help you revise skills and knowledge for these.

- YOU MUST COMPLETE THE QUOTE GRID, QUOTATION PLAN AND THE WHW PARAGRAPH EACH WEEK: THIS IS NOT OPTIONAL
- Each activity is about 15minutes
- You will need a pen and highlighters.
- You will need a copy of the Lit text Poetry Anthology, Macbeth or ACC or quotations from them.
- Use the WHW as a model above to help you with ingredients of what to write about.
